MESSAGE

to you ...

IF YOU ARE CONSIDERING STUDYING IN JAPAN...

Studying abroad could be an exciting challenge in your life and a chance to discover a new side of yourself. To ensure that you have a wonderful experience in Japan, ISI Japanese Language School promises to provide comprehensive support.

We are ISI Japanese Language School.

DISCOVER THE NEW YOU

We shot a new concept visual with ISI Japanese Language School students under the slogan "DISCOVER THE NEW YOU".

The key visual represents one of ISI's most appealing features: diversity. We also hope that it is a good chance for you to discover a new you by experiencing living and studying in a foreign country with your peers from all over the world.

Why ISI?

✓ Educational System

With an LMS (Learning Management System) that supports individual learning along with communication-oriented classes that aim to help students "say what they want to say", students enjoy learning while gaining a sense of achievement every day.

✓ Activities

We offer a variety of extracurricular classes for "exchange" and "experience". While experiencing traditional Japanese culture such as kimono, festivals, tea ceremony, Japanese cuisine, Japanese gardens, shrines and temples, students will improve their overall Japanese language skills and acquire communication and expression skills.

AWARD Certificates

ISI has won grand prizes and awards in the Study Star Awards, the "Oscars of the study abroad industry," for its quality of education and service.

✓ Support from School entrance to Post-Graduation Career Pathways

Professional counselors provide free multilingual support during pre-enrollment procedures. After enrolling, in addition to classes, professional career counselors will support you in continuing your studies and finding a job, so that you can realize your dreams after graduation.

✓ Campus Design and Facilities

Spatial design to make your study time more comfortable. The entire school is equipped with Wi-Fi, and other facilities include study rooms, a library corner, a lounge, a cafe, a Japanese-style room, and a prayer room.

ISO
Certificates

Four ISI Japanese Language Schools have obtained ISO29991 certification, the international standard for language learning services.

New You STORIES

Mansi

It was a truly wonderful experience for me to make some good lifelong friends at ISI. I still keep in contact with those friends.

Hernan

Everyday is a new discovery. Even if the culture is completely different, by learning the language you will be able to understand the other person's way of thinking and customs.

Keles

I decided to study in Japan because I wanted to live in a beautiful, safe and peaceful country. After studying at ISI's Harajuku Campus, which specializes in job placement, I got a job at the largest EC company in Japan.

Rojina

I heard that Japan is a safe, beautiful country with a large economy, and I decided to study in Japan because I had the aspiration to contribute as an international professional there.

Lin

Learning a language other than your own is like gaining a new lens through which to see the world. At ISI you can discover new lenses and amazing people.

Airat

I went to ISI every day. Do my homework, talk to my friends, go to lunch. I really loved these everyday things. It's now a very fond memory for me.

WE'VE SUPPORTED more than 41,000 STUDENTS, from 120 + COUNTRIES and REGIONS.

ISI Japanese language school attracts students from all over the world.

We also provide comprehensive support in various languages to help you choose the best course for you from schools and seven campuses in four cities that are tailored to your individual goals and future aspirations.

Teachers provide personalized and attentive support for each student's study program along with career counseling.

Hugo

If you are aiming to find work in Japan, ISI is recommended. This is because there are teachers who teach you interview techniques and are always there to support you.

Tyler

Life both inside and outside of school is very fulfilling. At school, I enjoy spending time with friends from countries I have never met before.

Anh

I decided to study in Japan because I wanted to discover new things while learning about the economy in a developed country. The teachers are friendly and there are plenty of extracurricular activities.

Alan

My classmates were from a variety of different countries. The teachers often ask about how things are done in your country which makes for an interesting discussion about country differences and culture. Teachers also provide support for life outside of class.

Josh

I highly recommend ISI, especially the Nagano campus. It's a great place to participate in a variety of events and meet a variety of different people.

Zhou

Wanting to study art in a free and creative environment, I decided to come to Japan to study, and when I entered ISI, I immediately made friends and teachers supported me.

FEATURES

ISI Japanese Language School's unique approach to help you advance to higher education in Japan

☑ Top University Preparation Class:

We offer a special advanced class for students who wish to enter difficult-to-enter universities and graduate schools in Japan. The pace of these class is faster than the regular curriculum, and every year many students advance to prestigious universities and graduate schools.

☑ Electives:

Once you reach Intermediate II level and above classes, you can take elective classes for graduate school entrance, EJU exam preparation, and JLPT exam preparation. Students will acquire the necessary examination preparation and Japanese language skills to enter higher education in Japan.

☑ Preparatory school operation (for Chinese language speakers):

Our School also manages a preparatory school for higher education. The collaboration between the Japanese language school and the college preparatory school enables us to build a seamless educational system and provide a rational and practical educational program.

Career path events that bring you closer to realizing your dreams

☑ ISI's original EXPO for higher education:

Popular universities and vocational schools will have booths just for ISI Japanese Language School students. This event allows students to hear directly from each participating school about their features and entrance examinations. Held throughout the year, this is a valuable opportunity for students.

☑ Information sessions and university tours by popular universities:

Throughout the year, information sessions are held by universities for ISI Japanese language school students. University tours are also held from time to time, and students have the opportunity to participate in campus tours and trial classes. This support is only possible because ISI is one of the largest Japanese language schools in Japan.

Varied educational pathways

☑ Admission to Group School:

Students have an advantage when entering vocational schools and universities operated by the ISI group. There are application privileges only for ISI Japanese language school students, and we have a full support system including preparation of application documents and visa renewals.

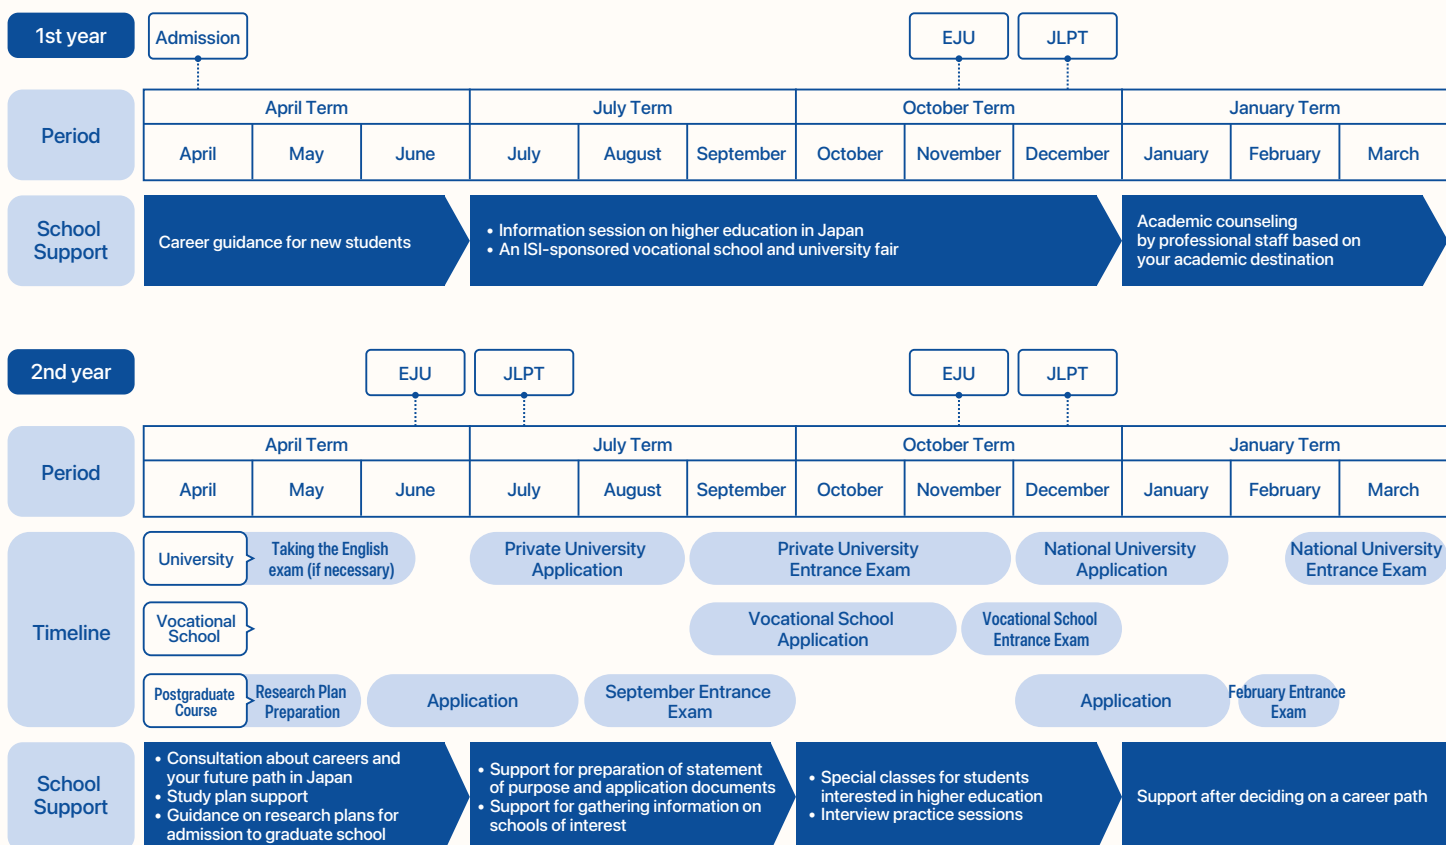

☑ Enhancement of designated school recommendations:

Our School has received designated school recommendation slots from higher education institutions throughout Japan, and many students have taken advantage of these slots. Not only do these recommendations simplify the examination process, it also allows students to receive tuition reductions and scholarships.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Academic Support Process from Admission to Graduation (April enrollment, 2-year course)

*The timing differs depending on the school year.

Homeroom teachers and career advisors work together to provide career counseling from the first year.

Career advisors are staff members who specialize in supporting students in advancing to higher education and finding employment. In addition to daily support from class teachers, students can also have regular interviews with their homeroom teacher as well as individual interviews and counseling with career advisors.

Digital learning materials enable learning anytime, anywhere.

With ISI Japanese Language School's original digital learning materials, you can prepare for and review your lessons anytime, anywhere.

The use of various devices increases learning efficiency.

ISI's Kyoto campus is close to Ritsumeikan University, so I often studied at the university library. My classmates were from many different countries, with only three Chinese students including myself. My homeroom teacher was kind and caring.

Kou

Accepted by Waseda University
School of Education

In ISI's special classes, there is a public speaking class every month, and the teachers helped me prepare for it. As I practiced my speech repeatedly, I became less nervous, which helped me during interviews.

Chou

Accepted by Osaka University,
Graduate School of Medicine, Division of Health Sciences

During the mock interviews at ISI, the Japanese teachers helped me by explaining and giving advice on my weak points. There were many such mock interviews, which were very useful for the actual interviews.

OBJECTIVE #02

Find work

Find a job and advance your career in Japan.

For these purposes

-  I want to work in Japan.
-  I want to build or restart my career in Japan.
-  I want to find a way of working in Japan that suits me.

Make your dream of working in Japan come true at ISI Japanese Language School

Over 1,000 students enroll in this program every year with the goal of finding employment in Japan.

RESIDENT Statuses

Two types of working permit statuses that ISI focuses on

ISI Japanese Language School supports you in obtaining the following working visas:

| Engineer / Specialist in Humanities / International services (See page 24) | |
|---|---|
| This is a status of residence for those who have a university degree or equivalent or significant work experience, and who wish to work for a Japanese company or organization making use of their skills. | ISI Japanese Language School will help you develop the Japanese language skills, business skills, and social skills required by companies, and at the same time, back up your overall job-hunting activities with career support, which is one of ISI's strengths. |
| Specified Skilled Worker (See page 25) | |
| This is a status of residence that allows foreign nationals to work in Japan if they possess a certain level of skill or knowledge in a specific field and pass an examination related to their Japanese language proficiency level. This is a good option for foreign students, regardless of their academic background, who wish to acquire skills and work in Japan. | ISI Japanese Language School will support students in the fields of "Accommodation" and "Food service" to improve their Japanese language skills, obtain the Specified Skilled Worker visa and find employment. We also plan to expand our support in the "transportation industry" and other fields where driver shortages is becoming an issue. |

FEATURES

ISI Japanese Language School's unique approach to help you advance to higher education in Japan

✓ Japanese language skills:

Students will learn the basics of Japanese language skills as well as practical "Japanese for business" according to their stage of study, while also learning conversational Japanese, Kanji, grammar and reading comprehension in a well-balanced manner.

✓ Business skills:

Students will learn skills necessary for various business situations, such as answering phone calls, emails, meetings, business negotiations, presentations, etc., and learn how to adapt to Japanese job hunting and corporate culture.

✓ Social skills:

As one of the "group activities (cooperative learning)", we conduct collaborative projects with companies and universities beyond the framework of a Japanese language school. This program enhances students' skills to understand others' situations and feelings, and to proactively carry out their own roles in collaboration with others.

FEATURES

An environment where you can enjoy and experience Japanese culture and hobbies

✓ Good location and excellent facilities for safety and security:

All ISI Japanese Language School campuses are located in the center of each city, within a 10-minute walk from the nearest station, making them conveniently located for daily access. This is an environment where you can study Japanese, as well as enjoy your hobbies and sightseeing.

✓ A wide range of school events and activities:

Enjoy a variety of events and activities that reflect the four seasons in Japan. Each school has its own seasonal events planned. We offer many experiences throughout the year, such as park walks, BBQs, Tanabata celebrations, sports events, and visits to cultural facilities.

✓ A variety of exchange opportunities:

Students are able to interact not only with international students from around the world, but also with the many Japanese students enrolled in schools belonging to the ISI group. We also value our ties with the local community, and students can experience local culture and Japanese lifestyle through interactions with local people.

Even if your goals change, you can choose from a variety of career paths

✓ A support system tailored to your needs:

ISI Japanese Language School has a system in place to support students flexibly according to their needs, so they will be fine even if their goals change during their study in Japan. The school also provides excellent career guidance for higher education and employment, allowing students to study with peace of mind.

Student VOICES

I feel at ease when I'm in Japan. It's relieving to just walk around and take in the beautiful scenery without needing to worry about anything else.

Josie

I became interested in Japan after watching Japanese anime. I chose ISI because of its multinational student population, so that I could speak as much Japanese as possible.

Zhou

I was interested in Japanese games and anime. Because of this, I studied abroad in my late 20s. I am glad that I was able to have the adventure of studying abroad at this point in my life.

Mattis

I have always loved Japanese culture and now I love the city of Tokyo and its lifestyle. I bonded with my classmates over karaoke and trips.

COURSES

Long-Term Course

This course is available for those with the intention of studying from 1 year to a maximum of 2 years with a student visa.

* Shibuya • Takadanobaba Campus is 1 to 2 years, and Nagano Campus is 1 year and 6 months to 2 years.

Short-Term Course

This course is for students coming to Japan with a residency status other than a student visa, who wish to study Japanese for at least 2 weeks.

* Those who wish to be enrolled for 1 year or more on a working holiday visa or a Japanese spouse visa may also take this course.

Short-Term General Japanese

Students can take classes for as short as two weeks, allowing them to learn Japanese well even in a short period of time. Students learn the major practical components of the language ("listening," "reading," "speaking," and "writing") and language knowledge ("vocabulary" and "grammar") systematically according to their Japanese level.

Summer Program

This is ISI Japanese Language School's original and popular summer program that combines Japanese language lessons with a variety of activities.

The program emphasizes exposure to various aspects of Japanese culture in order to improve communication skills in Japanese in a short period of time, and has a growing number of students repeating the course.

Short-Term Career Japanese

This course is designed for those who wish to improve their Japanese language and business skills at the same time and advance their careers in a short period of time. Students will learn practical "Japanese for business" from beginner level, aiming to master Japanese communication necessary in business situations, appropriate keigo expressions, and written and spoken Japanese.

Winter Program

In Nagano, a snow resort area, participants will experience skiing, hot springs, cultural experiences, and international exchange while learning Japanese. This program is highly reputed for its significant improvement in Japanese language skills, as students study in classes at the most appropriate Japanese level and use the language they have learned in the activities.

Evening Course

This course is for those who want to study while working or for those for whom daytime classes alone are not enough. Three times a week on weekdays (19:10 - 20:50), students can make use of their evening hours to study Japanese conversation intensively and polish their conversational skills for everyday situations. You can also choose to study online in a hybrid format, so you can continue the course without any stress.

Private Japanese Lesson

By having a meeting with each student in advance to discuss in detail his / her learning goals, Japanese level, and course schedule, etc., we are able to provide individualized and optimal Japanese language lessons that meet each student's needs and desires. We also offer personal lessons and group lessons for companies.

PROGRAMS for Educational Institutions and Companies

ISI Japanese Language School offers customized plans for schools, companies, and organizations based on specific needs, learning objectives, and goals. From the selection of study content to the scheduling of lessons, we can tailor the plan exactly to the learner's needs, allowing everyone from beginners to advanced students to learn Japanese efficiently.

Group Program

We offer a variety of Japanese language study plans for schools and groups. In addition to Japanese language study plans tailored to your level, we can also customize plans that include popular activities and seasonal events in Japan, as well as university tours for students who are considering higher education in Japan. Please feel free to contact us for more information.

Japanese language programs / training for companies

We provide Japanese language learning support and training programs for foreign personnel. Our customizable curriculum is tailored to meet company-specific needs and job descriptions, and aims to help students acquire Japanese language skills that will put them to work right away. High-quality instruction by experienced instructors ensures smooth communication in a cross-cultural environment and helps companies succeed.
